Loud & Queer

Loud & Queer

Watch what happens, as womanizing Axel and gay drama queen Norbert share an apartment and plenty of adventures and misfortunes.

When Axel's plan to move in with his girlfriend Doro falls through, the unlikely pair continues their living-together arrangement. Over the past years, the initial hostility (and Norbert's thing for Axel) has subsided and the two have become fast friends. While Axel is torn between his insatiable urge to go on the prowl for attractive women and his undeniable attraction to Doro, Norbert is stumbling from one unlikely catastrophe to the next on his quest to hook up with his old flame Paul.

"Will they or won't they?" is the many-sided question, and the results are as hilarious as ever.

But thankfully Axel and Norbert have each other's backs, which is especially important when all the whacky escapades of their friends and families are taken into account. There's Doro's hot roommate Trixi, the gender-bending Walter / Waltraud and her lover Frank, and of course Norbert's meddling mother - all coming together in an uproariously funny, madcap life adventure that illustrates how "queer" can be so charmingly normal...
