Dangerous Students

Maren begins a new job at a prestigious private school. Although her easy-going personality enables her to quickly bond with the class, she is troubled by the relationships among the students. Jonas and Maximilian set the pace, others like the overweight Nina or the shy Frederic are completely isolated.

One morning Maren receives a call from an anonymous person who threatens a killing spree. She immediately alarms the police, who respond by surrounding the school building. Jonas' father Niklas is in charge of the squad.

The very same evening, Maren receives a threatening email from "Fighter X".

After showing the email to the dean, who expresses no concern, Maren decides to undertake her own investigation and contacts police inspector Niklas.

After being repeatedly humiliated by Maximilian and Jonas, Frederic refuses to attend classes, but returns to school after talking to Maren. There, the situation rapidly escalates. Suddenly, Jonas pulls a paintball gun and threatens his classmates: Maren is now convinced that Jonas is "Fighter X".

Niklas desperately attempts to prove that his son has nothing to do with the threats and the shooting. Meanwhile, "Fighter X" sends Maren an email along with a virtual map, where a heavily armed person runs through the corridors of the school and shoots everyone in sight...
