Inside Out

36 year-old Ferdinand still lives with his gay parents, Harry and Laila. This means his social life is not quite a raging success, and it definitely makes people wonder. After his girlfriend ditches him, Ferdinand figures he's got to make a stand and prove to everybody, including himself, that he's straight. He moves in with the crusty author Toni, who happens to be smack in the middle of a major creativity crisis.

Ferdinand expects to receive a crash course in masculinity from his macho mentor. It turns out that Toni has recently been abandoned by his girlfriend and is now having a difficult time with the ladies himself...
