My Dad, Me and Her

My Dad, Me and Her

Since her mother's death, the lively Laura and her father Paul have grown very close. Laura considers her father to be a really "cool dad".

That is, until she falls head over heels for her classmate Ben just before her 16th birthday. Paul realizes that his daughter is seriously in love and develops a major case of jealousy. The pretty teenager is absolutely convinced that Ben is the just right person to be her first love, so she has to find a way to distract her father. Ben's mom Anna might be just the right solution, because her work as a pet psychologist has made her accustomed to difficult cases!

Nobody could have imagined that Paul and Anna would fall in love at first sight and start behaving like teenagers. Laura's plan has worked out perfectly... but maybe too perfectly.

For Laura, her father's romance has gone too far... no one is going to take her father away from her!
