Roof Top Romance

Lilly is a passionate chimney sweep who is well known and popular in her neighborhood. She brings people good luck with her special talent for matchmaking. Lilly herself has not been in love for ages.

Then Lilly's best friend Sabine, an interior designer, loses her heart to her colleague Kai but is too shy to approach him. Lilly coaches her, unaware of the fact that Kai is the man with whom she just had a major argument because his artistic building design fell far short of the strict building regulations. Still, Kai could not help but like the straightforward Lilly.

When Sabine shows her friend Kai's architectural plans, Kai suddenly shows up. Shocked, Lilly harshly criticizes his plan, which hurts Kai deeply. Despite their differences, Lilly still keeps her promise to help Sabine win Kai's heart.

Intrigued by what she might see, Lilly climbs up to the roof at night and spies on Kai. She moves closer and closer to his window... until he finally spots her.

Although uncomfortable with the situation, she uses the opportunity to find out more about Kai's interests. Armed with this information Sabine works up the courage to invite Kai to her place. Even though the two seem to have a lot in common, for Kai, the sparks do not fly.

When Kai finally confesses his love for her, Lilly initially resists, but then gives in to her feelings. Crushed that she has lost Kai to her best friend, Sabine refuses to have anything more to do with Lilly. Deeply shaken, Lilly falls into a crisis, cuts off all contact with Kai and even considers giving up her beloved job. But maybe it is time for this chimney sweep's good luck to work for herself!
